Colonia Clean-Up Campaign

BEFORE

AFTER

Webb County Commissioner Rosaura "Wawi" Tijerina announced during a press conference a new campaign to benefit residents of colonias located on Highway 359. The Colonia Clean-Up Campaign will be picking up refuse, including non-commercial tires and household appliances, not only for health and safety reasons, but also to improve the environment and quality of life for those living in and around these colonias. The campaign will be spearheaded in conjunction with the Self Help Center and the Road & Bridge Department.
